THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER

Some Practical Sense from Prof. Gregory of Illinois

[illegible] THE OREGONIAN

[illegible] At the Social Science Association [illegible] Gregory read a paper on the American newspaper [illegible] on education The American newspaper is the best index of American [illegible] the people [illegible] estimate of the spirit [illegible] of America is to study the newspapers [illegible] our thoughts and [illegible] American [illegible] in volume and [illegible] [illegible] the thought and interests [illegible] of business [illegible] and the trade [illegible] advertiser [illegible] religious political [illegible] but staffing the number of newspapers [illegible] story One must know well the great army of writers [illegible] their columns [illegible] editors reporters correspondents [illegible] of all kinds [illegible] large proportion of the talent of the country The real brain of the nation speaks through its papers The latest and freshest thoughts of the people is to be sought in the last paper issued The mall [illegible] meanness fanaticism [illegible] and fraud which mix with our daily life cannot be shut out from the papers but truth wisdom practical sense and love of the public good solid teaching and courageous criticism are also in force in the newspapers so that we may easily forget the bad elements which mingle with them It is the business of social science to take account of all great public forces to mark their extent, character and tendencies and to learn [illegible] direction and power for good or evil The newspaper is at once the product and exponent of the American mind no better no worse [illegible] probably exceeds bad in the newspaper in larger proportion than among the people for vice seeks seclusion not publicity In no other country does the newspaper exercise such power as in America. Americans live work and drink through newspapers acting as a public conscience. It places the seal of shame or honor upon each chapter of our history as it transpires No man forgets [illegible] watches to reward the good and punish the bad Good men trust it and bad men fear it The power of the newspaper is not the mere force of printed thought it is the embodied power of the public life of the day Each reader feels that he is surrounded by an unseen multitude who are reading the same lines and he grows excited with imaginary responses All forces of current history prove themselves through the press [illegible] remains [illegible] It is impossible that so gigantic a force as the American newspaper should exist without exerting a corresponding influence upon the character, affairs and destinies of the people. All things educate us Country climate scenery and society, business and pleasures and environments exert a power on our minds and characters A free press is a necessary complement of free schools Without schools the press would lack readers without the press scholarship would fail of half of its uses The newspaper is a public agent It offers to the people for pay certain services and on this work as an advertising agent and public herald it depends for its support not to reckon it only as a public enterprise would insult public intelligence as much as it would [illegible] its rights In its public character the paper enters into the ranks of the world's teachers Education has two factors—factors of culture or discipline and of knowledge The one comes by [illegible] the other by whatever furnishes information by reflection and most of all by reading

With all our schools we could never be intelligent people without newspapers They are people's libraries, the cyclopædia of millions School arts and professional men must read books, but woe woe to them if they read not the newspapers. Even the fragmentary and ephemeral character of its articles lend occasional charms, if not additional utility to it. Freshness and variety of articles lure the reader on. It talks to men of their business, their political parties their church themselves The men it describes are their contemporaries their neighbors It thus adds something of dignity to their daily lives The newspaper of to-day chronicles movements of thought as well as those of men and nations. All find place in these perpetual school and text books of popular learning Facts will sustain this estimate of the educational power of the newspaper Other things being equal the man or family who take and read a good newspaper will be more intelligent than their neighbors who do not Sift from the American people the foreign importations of non reading masses, and the remainder will be found the best read and most intelligent population of the globe The newspaper is not advocated as a substitute for the schools but as a complement to them The American press directed by men of educated minds will find their way into schoolrooms The scholars will be taught their use and furnish them more interested and more intelligent readers Let the gigantic force of the newspaper be turned upon the work of popular education Let schools introduce this new text book and we have at work an agency never surpassed to make enlightened and free people.

At the conclusion Mr Higgins, who presided made a few remarks of adverse criticism and called upon Moncure Conway to tell something of English newspapers.

Mr Conway said The English papers are better printed than American, and use better paper The American papers use too fine type

Dr Gregory defended American papers and said that he could buy more good reading for 5 cents in a Chicago newspaper than was contained in the London Times which cost more

THE "PUBLIC'S" STATEMENT

Last Month's Business—Good Prospects.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN

New York, Sept 8—The Public to-morrow will have the following clearinghouse exchanges for the first week in September, which show the following gains and losses as compared with the corresponding period of last year Gains New York City 3.0, Boston 12.5, Chicago 45.8 Cincinnati 20.9 Philadelphia 6.4, St Louis 3.4 Baltimore 0.5 Louisville 3.0, Milwaukee 11.6 Pittsburg 21.6 New Orleans 22.2 Indianapolis 50.9 Kansas City 25.4 Cleveland 22.0 New Haven 22.0, Syracuse 83.0 Lowell 18.7 Losses San Francisco 12.8 Providence 6.7

The Public also publishes returns for the clearing houses for the entire month of August commencing thus The remarkable feature of the exchanges for August is a comparative decline at New York for which transaction in the stock exchange by no means account It was explained last week that the returns of speculative transactions either in stocks or in grain or cotton failed to account for the small increase in exchanges at New York at the time when exchanges elsewhere show a large increase The monthly statement presents the same contrast San Francisco is the only other city at which the exchanges do not exceed those of August 1879 by more than the difference in prices, and no difference in speculative activity explains the relative smallness of exchanges On the other hand the gain at other cities is large, especially everywhere except San Francisco Nor can it be said that business at New York is dull for the streets and docks are crowded with goods sold for fall trade These transactions however are not fully felt in bank exchanges until after two or three months New York excepted reports are particularly encouraging and satisfactory Reports for the first week in Sept earlier at New York are entirely gratifying Philadelphia and Baltimore do not seem to have had as large transactions during the past month as would be supposed from reports of grain receipts and Louisville and Milwaukee also lag behind but the general tenor of reports is decidedly favorable Nor is there any indication of stagnation in business either here or in other important cities If there was fear of monetary stringency that fear no longer has influence for short the month opens with very safe activity prospects and the singular shrinkage of New York exchanges in August remains unexplained

Comments of the New York Press

New York Sept 8—The Times says of the Vermont election The most sanguine of the estimates which were other than mere guesses gave the republicans this year the majority of 1876 between 23,000 and 24,000 but all returns so far received show that the majority of 1872 has been exceeded

The Tribune says If the republicans gain in the 131 towns not fully reported, as they have gained in town heard from their majority will be 26,790 This would exceed the wildest anticipations of the most sanguine republicans It would exceed the largest republican majority for governor in the last decade The republicans have already 15,000 majority in 110 out of 231 towns, and they would have been satisfied with 20,000 in the whole state. The result in Vermont looks like the beginning of a democratic Waterloo

I thank you sincerely for the honor of being called to preside only temporarily over your deliberations We have assembled at a very auspicious period politically not only in the history of this territory but of the nation I think I can safely say from the feeling prevailing here that the nominees of this convention will receive as large if not indeed larger majorities than were ever before given to republican candidates in the territory If we look abroad and note the signs of the times we see a remarkable state of things and a degree of enthusiasm in the republican party as was never seen The signs are bright that there is a determined effort on the part of the republican party to keep the control of the government where it rightly belongs and to prevent it passing into democratic rebel control [Applause] Let me predict that shortly after the second day of November next we shall all meet in our respective homes and have a glorification over the election of every man nominated by this convention and of Garfield and Arthur [Applause]

A Sea of Fire in the Province of Quebec

Upton Sept. 8—One of the most terrible occurrences in the history of this section was the fire which swept through a portion of this village on Monday carrying ruin and death in its track both to man and beast. Brush fires have been numerous for a some time and little attention given them High wind on Monday fanned the flames and the inhabitants at about 6 o'clock saw with dismay a wall of flames come towards them with a steady sweep as fast as a man could run swallowing up everything in its course By 4 o'clock the first farm house had been reached and the fire ran along rail fence, burning grain and the wind sent the sparks in all directions. So quickly was one farm house and then another enveloped that men women and children had barely time to escape but [illegible] line As night drew on the flames increased in volume while the wind rose and after a space about twelve miles in length and three or four in width had been traversed the eye rested on nothing but roaring flames Families came flying into the village shivering in scanty dress children shrieked in their terror cattle ran helter skelter and many were burned to death Forest after forest was swept away and smoke and flames was in one compact volume some [illegible] long and measured as far as the eye [illegible] as to width From St Helena St Germain St Guilhaums and other roads came [illegible], in some instances compelled to abandon vehicles and take to horseback Men were obliged to throw away their [illegible] in order to save their lives House after house and barns filled with the best crops known in years were licked up and when the fugitives were all counted it was found there were 11 persons [illegible] but one of whom it was thought would escape but towards morning most of them turned up, several badly burned J B Ledoux P Carrie, L C Pierce K L Polvin [illegible] Collette P Destiel G Nelit J Ponlin L [illegible] L Clake Tr K E Vi[illegible]tace J B Leise le O Maguin P [illegible] T Breven [illegible] P Boissonnette [illegible] and A [illegible] were burned The following persons were burned to death Pierre Currier aged 81 Joseph Currier aged 8 Telesphore Currier aged 16 Xavier Boyd is not expected to survive his injuries It is certain that some 75 families have been burned out representing nearly 150 persons. YAZOO BEATITUDES

Mr Sidney Dell of this city a gentleman recently from the state of Georgia wishing The Oregonian's readers to be convinced that tolerance fraternity and happy peace dwell sweetly with the inhabitants of Yazooland [illegible] is a communication with accompanying documents which we present today. The burden of it all is to show that the brother of Dixon who was murdered in Yazoo was not molested when he went down there a little ago and had no occasion whatever to be afraid. We have had no information on the subject except what was furnished by the public press, and this we gave with the proper authority for it. F P Dixon who was not in Mississippi for political purposes or at least made no effort to become a candidate in opposition to the democratic party may have been in no personal danger at all. But no one supposes it would be healthy to make any vigorous effort to organize the republican party in Mississippi or in any other of those states which the republicans would carry on a fair vote. For twenty five years no such thing as political toleration as known in the northern states has existed in the south. One of these Mississippi letters asserts that the republicans of the state have an electoral ticket and that all who wish to vote it can do so freely. The statement, like so many other fair professions from that quarter is so overborne by the facts that it can not be treated with patience. So long as republicans were allowed to vote freely and so long as their votes were honestly counted Mississippi was a republican state by 25,000 to 30,000 majority. Suddenly the policy of the shotgun and of false counting was put in force and the republican vote of the state was utterly wiped out. In this paradise of Yazoo county to which we are asked to turn our longing eyes for an example of political toleration and brotherly love the republican vote in 1872 was 2433 and the democratic vote 922. In 1873 the republican vote was 2499 and the democratic vote 635. Suddenly the very next election, that of 1875, there were only seven republican votes, while the democratic vote was returned at 4044! Since then the highest republican vote returned is three. Hayes had only two. All over the state and over many states, like things were witnessed. The republican vote of those states has been suppressed by violence, force murder and fraud. It is useless to deny it. Such results are possible in no other way. And moreover the murders and frauds are sufficiently attested. The south is governed and for more than twenty-five years has been governed by a relentless political despotism. It is not and during this generation has not been a country of free political opinion and free political action, except partially so for a short time just after the close of the war. The governor of Mississippi who himself is an accomplice in these outrages and who owes his position to them, when he prates in his oily manner about the tolerance and fairness of the south, reminds one of the southern leaders in the times of secession and war talking of their own agonizing devotion to the constitution. Testimony from such sources on political matters is not accepted in the northern states. There are innumerable proofs that the same spirit actuates the south now as in 1860. The methods are somewhat different but the intolerance is the same, and all the oily gammon of Gov Stone only sets off more sharply the hideous fact that no votes were allowed to be cast against him in a state where the republican majority, when fairly polled and counted has run hitherto from thirty to thirty five thousand. It seems to us that we are in no great danger of fulfilling the apprehensions of our correspondent as to "becoming a nation of liars" unless we habituate ourselves to such practices as that of asserting with the men of Mississippi that such results as those above noted instead of indicating the perpetration of great crimes against the rights of citizens and against our system of government is the highest proof of political honesty, fairness and tolerance in the states where such results are witnessed. It would appear to be advisable that we become neither a nation of liars about a great national wrong, nor of incredulous simpletons whom no proof of a great national wrong will convince or move

NATURE OF THE CONTEST

It would be difficult to find in small space a more complete presentation of the chief phases of the present political contest than we find in this paragraph from the New York Times of the 28th August. We give it this prominence to readers here because of the clearness and compactness of its statement of the case, furnishing as it does a complete view of the nature of a contest which for the next two months will absorb nearly the whole attention of the people. "Not only," says the Times, "has the solidity of the south and the character of its candidate and its pretensions brought up the sectional issue anew and given it new vitality and new meaning, but it has resulted in the issue absorbing all others. As a consequence of the democratic position, enforced upon the party by the solid south it has been obliged to keep all practical questions of policy in the background or ignore their existence. The democrats deprecate a discussion of the sectional issue which they have made but they have [illegible] nothing else to discuss. So far as their candidate is concerned and their attitude and utterances in the canvass, one would suppose that there were no such things as questions of currency and finance, of tariff of civil service, of shipping interests or internal transportation. As subjects of controversy these have been suddenly annihilated. Whatever is said about them is said by republicans, and when they are mentioned or suggested the democrats are mute or bewildered. In fact, the sectional issue forced upon the country by the boasted solidity of the south has swallowed up all other questions and left as the supreme matter of choice control of the government by ex confederates with all their sinister purposes, or by the men who have always been faithful to the union and to the cause of enlightened nationality. The dominance of the spirit that suppresses the right of suffrage by violence and fraud fosters ignorance and disorder resists the authority of the national government and attempts to nullify its laws or of that which secures the ballot box against the [illegible] and [illegible] cherishes education and obedience to law [illegible] the authority of the nation [illegible] between [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] that the [illegible] north is [illegible] civilization and the southern tendency [illegible] of control in the government

FINANCIAL ASPECTS OF THE CONTEST

[illegible] is making speeches [illegible] to the [illegible] the time [illegible] speech at Cincinnati on the preceding [illegible] that [illegible] Though the [illegible] in his present [illegible] party [illegible] the last [illegible]

licans have brought about the resumption of specie payments against the active resistance of the democrats solemnly announced in their national platform in 1876. They have brought gold which was a 6 per cent premium at the beginning of Hayes' administration and [illegible] per cent premium at the height of the rebellion down to par and they have accumulated sufficient gold in the treasury to secure the permanence of resumption. They have reduced the public debt nearly eight hundred and fifty million dollars from its maximum. They have refunded a large part of it at a lower rate of interest and reduced the annual interest charge sixty to seventy millions of dollars. They have defeated democratic efforts at repudiation and raised the public credit to the highest point in the history of the country. They have secured an honest and efficient collection of the revenue and economy and faithfulness in the administration of the government. As a result of these achievements they have led the country into an era of prosperity unequaled in the records of its previous existence. Secretary Sherman makes it clear that the republican party has not only accomplished this but has done it against the efforts of the democrats who advocated an exactly opposite policy and that a change of government now would be to risk all that has been gained and expose the country to all the dangers of crude wild reckless and ignorant financiering. This is only a bare outline of the strong Cincinnati speech, in which the secretary also reviews the political attitude of the two parties and points out the perilous consequences of a return of the democrats to power. It is enough however without going further to enlist every business man every conservative citizen, every man who sees profit and safety for his own concerns in wise and sound financial administration and peril and loss in ignorant and reckless management in support of the election of Garfield

Democratic hopes in Indiana have received a cold shower bath in the action of the greenbackers with whom the democrats have till now been in coalition. There has been a misunderstanding, a decided unpleasantness between the former allies and as a result the greenbackers have put in nomination a state ticket of their own and separate candidates for congress in all the districts. At one time there was strong probability that the greenbackers would support all the democratic candidates. But bad faith was shown by the democrats in refusing to nominate De la Matyr for re-election to congress in the Indianapolis district. De la Matyr is chief of the greenback party in Indiana and two years ago was elected by the coalition though in a republican district. Without consulting with him and his friends the democrats this time nominated a "straight" candidate and have since treated him with contempt. Hence De la Matyr and his backers have resolved to let the democratic managers see how they can get on alone. This was the entering wedge for disagreement among the former allies all over the state. It is believed that the result will be a loss to the democrats of many thousands of votes which have been aiding them directly or indirectly for a number of years past. Good political judges consider it almost certain that the republicans will carry Indiana.

When census frauds are committed honest experts usually have little difficulty in detecting them from various features of internal evidence which in nearly all cases are found upon inspection of the returns. Against close and skillful scrutiny it is hardly possible for fraudulent returns to stand. Fabricated returns, no matter how much pains be taken with them, must always show discrepances and incongruities. The frauds in the South Carolina returns were detected in many ways. Proportions were wanting and experts were not slow to see the fact. For example, in lists of many hundred names taken seriatim, are all returned as natives of South Carolina. This of itself is preposterous. Experience shows it to be a thing which could not possibly happen. Again, in selection of fabricated names there is always some peculiarity or other by which the method can be detected. It is probable that the census of South Carolina will all be taken over again and certain that the perpetrators of the fraud will be dealt with.

H. W. S.

A so-called newspaper, running as a personal organ and utterly irresponsible in its statements alleges that it has produced "the sworn evidence of Mr Geo E Cole in which he (Cole) acknowledges that in conjunction with K W Scott he tried to buy off J H Mitchel for the sum of $25 000 in favor of Ben Holladay for U S senator" Mr Cole has neither acknowledged nor testified to anything of the kind in relation to Mr Scott. But had he been requested to testify on that subject he would have answered that he understood Mr Scott to be firmly opposed to abandonment of Mr Mitchell or to his displacement for any other candidate. There are enough who know that Mr Scott always kept faith with Mr Mitchell and Mr Mitchell's organ has nothing to gain for him by any discussion of their relations

It cannot be called a remarkable thing for the republican party to win in Vermont but as the magnitude of the majority may be taken as an index of northern opinion, there is a significance even in a Vermont election. Heretofore Vermont has given republican majorities as follows

In 1870	21 209
In 1872	[illegible]
In 1874	20 325
In 1876	[illegible]
In 1878	20 038

The returns at hand now indicate a greater majority than the highest of these. One thing is indicated, namely that the republican spirit of the country is up and that a tremendous vote will be polled in November. The chances are strong that it will carry every northern state as in the best days of the party's vigor and strength. The set is now decidedly that way.

The vote of Mississippi in 1872 was as follows Grant 82 175, Greeley 47 288. In 1873 the vote on governor was as follows Ames, republican, 73 524, Alcorn independent [illegible] 52 8[illegible]. This was before the days of the bulldozer. In 1878 the vote of the state as officially returned gave Stone democrat, 96,382 and there were but 1155 scattering votes returned against him of which 1081 were in a single county where through some mistake the operators of the [illegible] plan appear to have been negligent or asleep. The manner of the counting and voting for Gov Stone will not persuade multitudes that there will [illegible] fair show of justice for those who vote for Garfield in November [illegible] the Mississippi [illegible] talks [illegible]

THURSDAY MORNING SEPT 9 1880

CITY.

CONTRACT COMPLETED.—Over a month ago Capt Denny at one time in command of the steamer Mary Taylor but more recently of the Alex Duncan, obtained the contract of carrying a cargo of hewed stone from Astoria to Tillamook rock. This stone was to be used in the construction of the light house at that point. Capt Denny chartered the trim little schooner Emily Stevens and at once commenced the work. To successfully land at the rock and discharge a cargo was no small task and was one attended with much danger. Before entering upon the work Capt Denny was required by the owners of the vessel to give bonds in the sum of $. This he did without difficulty. During the past 31 days the Emily Stevens has made five trips to Tillamook rock carrying each time a large cargo of stone. Having completed his contract Capt. Denny returned to the city and will turn over the Emily Stevens to her owners.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.—The contract for the improvement of Oak street 800 yards with Belgian block pavement was let yesterday afternoon to A Hamilton at $ per yard seven cents per yard less than that obtained by S S Cook. Mr Hamilton receives 70 cents per yard for excavation. S S Cook was awarded the contract to enlarge the cisterns at the intersections of the following streets: Washington and First, Oak and First, Alder and First to a capacity of 20 000 gallons. They are to be walled with brick and arched. The cistern at the intersection of Stark and First streets will be arched over with brick. The aggregate cost of the whole is $

MORE BONES EXHUMED.—Two weeks since mention was made in these columns of the discovery of some bones of what is supposed to have belonged to some huge animal that existed hundreds of centuries ago near Butte creek in Clackamas county. These bones were exhumed by Mr John Walters. Since that time he has found more bones—a jaw and one of the joints of the back or neck and a bone belonging to some portion of the animal, as yet unknown. Scientists and naturalists are invited to examine these bones which can be seen at the Fulton House on the macadamized road.

DIED.—After a short illness Mrs. Mary Clinton departed this life last evening at 10 o'clock at the residence of C H Meussdorffer in East Portland. The deceased was born in May 1800 and consequently was in her 80th year. She was the mother of Mr Alex Lawson (by her first husband), Mr Nicholas Clinton of Astoria and Mrs. C H Meussdorffer of East Portland. Mrs Clinton leaves one brother—George Shepbard—who now resides in Philadelphia. The time of the funeral has not been fixed yet.

A ROW.—The Telegram says: "A few days ago a disturbance occurred on the narrow gauge road near Woodburn, Marion county. Mr Cook, who figured on the levee business in this city a few months ago has charge of about 30 Chinamen who rebelled and attacked the white men. Like cowards they all ran away, leaving Cook alone to face the angry mob who threatened to murder him on the spot. He drew a six shooter and drove the crowd of Mongolians back over the grade like coyotes."

ESTABLISHING A COUNTY ROAD.—For some time a number of citizens of Sauvies Island have been petitioning the county court of Multnomah for a road. A minority of the residents of that island has remonstrated against the proposed road and so the matter has been "hanging fire" for some time. Yesterday the petition was before the county commissioners and judge, and being discussed pro and con. It is more than probable that the petition will be granted.

HEARD FROM.—A Walla Walla paper says: "A letter from John Maguire dated Coeur d'Alene Aug 31st, informs us that having got so near Montana he concluded to keep on and see the other side of the rocky range and that we should soon hear from him at Helena. He is enjoying himself traveling along with a team about 12 miles a day and has done well since leaving Walla Walla."

SPLENDID ROADWAY.—A few days since mention was made of the fact that a force of men was engaged in grading a roadway from Front street down Jefferson to the landing at the foot. This work is now completed, and all who desire to patronize the Jefferson street ferry will find a splendidly planked roadway 20 feet in width leading from Front street down to the water's edge.

GOLD WATCH PRESENTED.—A very pleasant episode occurred at the Cascades locks and canal a few days ago, which will long be remembered by all who participated. Mr Lawrence King, in behalf of the many employes at these public works presented to Mr Breckinridge, just prior to his departure a magnificent gold watch and chain, to which was attached an elegant locket.

NEARLY A FIRE.—The residence of W P [illegible] near the corner of Ninth and [illegible] street, narrowly escaped destruction yesterday evening. While supper was being cooked the stovepipe became disarranged and set fire to the partition. A little son of Mr Green discovered the fire and gave the alarm. A few buckets of water timely applied put the fire out.

PORTRAIT OF MISS EVA BURBANK.—There is at the studio of Mr. Cogswell the noted artist (in the [illegible] hotel) a wonderfully beautiful likeness of the unfortunate little Eva. The artist is the rage of life and one of the artist's best efforts. All who have seen it are charmed with the success attained in portraying the living likeness of the little lady.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.

Senator Slater Makes a Speech—Some Things of which he Talked—More of the Politician than the Statesman

By dint of marching through the city for an hour with 110 torches and two brass bands and sending up sky rockets along the route the democrats said a large crowd last night to hear Senator Slater speak on the political issues of the day. From the senator's reputation and more from the fact that he occupies a position of such importance and prominence it was expected that he would say something upon the great questions involved in the contest now going on between the two great parties—that he would discuss matters from the standpoint of a statesman, and while his speech was expected to be democratic it was also expected to be above a rehash of the silly stuff with which his audience has read over and over again for the last three months. Of course the senator is like all democrats before election full of confidence. In fact he seems to be certain of Hancock's election and when he prophesied a result good for democratic victory in November the audience cheered vociferously. He premised his speech by the above prediction and the statement that a party must not be judged by its platform or the principles it enunciates on paper. This is eminently true for if the people judged the senator's party by its platform the opinion of that party would be much better than the party deserves. But the record of the democratic party is what rises up before the mind of every thinking patriot when he would look at the beauties of the democratic platform.

Upon the frauds of 1876 when five or six southern states were carried for Tilden by the most outrageous means and an electoral commission created by a democratic congress decided that these votes for Tilden in three states had been fraudulently obtained for the democratic candidates Mr Slater had much to say though he did not put it in the above light. He characterized the seating of President Hayes as the greatest fraud of this or any age referring to Hayes as "the fraud"—a manner of speaking not compatible with the dignity of any man who claims a mite of statesmanship—and ignoring the fact that the democracy had admitted the falsity of its charge of fraud by refusing to renominate the fraudee.

Mr Slater's speech however was devoted largely to an attempt to show the infamy of the election law of the United States allowing the marshals to appoint deputies on election day. He read from a democratic campaign text book garbled extracts of the testimony taken before a congressional committee appointed to investigate democratic charges of malfeasance in the conduct of elections in New York and St Louis. These matters have been repeated over and over again in all the democratic papers. His statement of the doings of some of these deputy marshals showed them in a very bad light but if his correctness in other particulars was no better than it was in regard to the constitutions of several of the states' which he said provided that citizens should be free from arrest on election day. The senator probably meant freedom from arrest in civil matters but he did not so qualify his statement but left those of his hearers who did not know better, under the impression that there are states in this union in which no arrests could be made on days on which elections are held.

He referred to the fears which republicans have in allowing the control of the government to fall into the hands of the confederate brigadiers, and tried to show that these fears were not real because several of these brigadiers who had joined the republican party were now or had been rewarded with fat offices naming A T Akerman, Mosby, Key, Longstreet and many others. His allusions to the services and life of Gen Hancock were highly laudatory and were loudly cheered. His attacks on Garfield were the same as might have been read in the New York Sun, San Francisco Examiner or Portland Standard time and again, though these papers often allude to one thing as much without foundation as the others to which Senator Slater did not make the slightest reference. The salary grab was not mentioned. He referred briefly to the republican candidate for vice president, but only to read the letters from the president and secretary of the treasury. These have also been published hundreds of times in the canvass and there was nothing new or original in this part of the speech.

He claimed that the democratic party was in favor of stopping Chinese immigration to this country declining of course to explain to his hearers that Garfield in his letter of acceptance declared firm conviction to be against the admission of Chinese while Hancock was dumb as an oyster. He closed as he began by predicting a democratic victory and advising the party to let its watchword be "rally boys rally."

At the conclusion of Mr Slater's speech a boy named Draper was called for and coming forward took the stand with a great deal of pomposity and in a sort of sing song style uttered a string of words with but little regard for truth or respect for those in the audience who felt that he ought to be at home tucked in his little bed. The young man has probably been spoiled by the laudations of his democratic friends because he is wordy.

Judge Bellinger was called for, but declining to make a speech he proposed three cheers for Hancock which were heartily given and the crowd dispersed.

Salem will be in a big bustle in a few days.

Regular meeting of the board of fire delegates this evening.

Politics will soon reach the white heat in Washington territory.

The steamship Columbia will be due here tomorrow evening.

To morrow morning the steamer State of California will sail hence.

The democratic territorial convention will meet at Kalama on the 15th inst.

Social circles are again tranquil after the agitation of the past few weeks.

The law makers will soon be in session. A good deal of judicious legislation is needed.

A force of men are engaged in overhauling the telegraph line between Roseburg and Coos bay.

Brickwork has been commenced on the new building at the corner of Stark and Second streets.

The foundation of the new county vault is completed and the main work is being pushed vigorously.

There is a nurse girl up town who says she is sorry for the nurse who will have Slater's baby on her hands. She thinks a baby that can make so much clamor before its birth will be a brass band when it gets its breath.

Mr R D Pitt called at our office last evening and requested us to say that the published statement that he had been elected secretary of the Irish republican club is an error. He is not in sympathy with the movement.

The golden rod glitters over the fields and the finger tips of the woodbine begin to crimson. The leaves of the young maples look limpid and yellow and along the roadside is already a sprinkling of fall color—and that's just what is the matter with Hannah.

Engaged Girl.—You might compromise the matter with Charlie by agreeing to let him name the first child, you the second, etc. We knew a couple that adopted this plan and it worked first rate. They had nine children and their names were Peri, Mike, Adelbert, Jane, Rupert, Sally, Pizarro, Peleg and Christabel.

THE WOODBURN HOMICIDE.

The following additional particulars have been obtained of the killing of the Chinaman near Woodburn in Marion county.

The name of the man who killed the celestial is Edward Searle. He is not a foreman as was reported but one of the spike drivers.

For several days past the Chinamen have been impudent. Whenever fresh water was brought they would crowd around the buckets and swill it out like pigs, not allowing the white men to get near it until it was too filthy to drink. During the afternoon of Monday a Frenchman went to the bucket to get a drink when one of the Chinamen knocked him down. The Frenchman jumped up and knocked two Chinamen clear off the grade.

Presently Searle went to the bucket to get some water when some 12 or 15 Chinamen started for him armed with picks, shovels, etc. and caused him to beat a hasty retreat to the track. On reaching the grade Searle seized a spike hammer and warned his pursuers to keep back. Regardless of his threats the celestials continued to advance. As soon as one came in reach he let drive giving him a terrific crack on the jaw sending him back in a heap. The next one that made a jump for him got a whack on the back of his head which crushed his skull felling him to the ground.

At this the whole gang of Chinamen thirty five in number started for Searle determined to murder him instantly. He ran to the construction train and sprang to a flat car but as fast as he would reach a car they would uncouple it. The boss motioned to the engineer to go ahead and just as Searle reached the car next the tender and the only one that was not uncoupled the locomotive moved out. The Chinamen snatched off their boots and chased the train for a long distance but did not prove sufficiently fleet of foot. On reaching Woodburn Searle went to the proper authorities and made his statement which was verified. The authorities considered that Searle acted purely in self defense and released him at once.

It is said the Chinamen were very indignant at the engineer who carried Searle out of reach of their murderous clutches and also at the boss who ordered the train to move away. Searle very prudently left Woodburn for it would have been worth his life to attempt to return to work.

The Chinaman who was struck on the head died Monday evening at 11 o'clock and yesterday the remains were brought down and buried. The Chinaman who was struck on the jaw was not seriously injured and will soon be well.

MOLD'S WHITE WINTER WHEAT.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

Some time since you mentioned a large yield of this wheat on the farm of Mr Barlow at Barlow's station. Some later remarks in your paper determined me to tell you what I know about this, without doubt valuable wheat. Mr Corson of this county received a few pounds from the agricultural department at Washington, and this year has two or three acres of new ground which yielded a little over 30 bushels per acre from about 25 lbs of seed per acre. The grain stools wonderfully—from 20 to 60 stalks from each seed. The agricultural department says:

"A new variety recently originated in Kent county England. It is beardless grain, plump heads from seven to nine inches long and tillers wonderfully. Now half the usual quantity one month earlier for these high bred cereals require both room and time, 105 heads having grown from one root."

According to my experience half the usual quantity is too much per acre.

Mr E. Turner also has some of this wheat. He threshed 36½ bushels (machine measure) from 25 lbs of seed—being about 30 bushels per acre from old land not having had manure of any kind upon it for eight years.

We understand Mr Corson's entire crop—about 70 bushels—is for sale by Everding & Beebe. J

SCHEFFLER'S BRANDY.

SCHEFFLER'S ST HELENA, EDGE HILL VACUUM DISTILLED BRANDY BEFORE THE MEDICAL MEN

At a council of eminent physicians of San Francisco held in June 1879 it was resolved that after thorough tests and analysis Wm Scheffler's Vacuum Distilled Grape Brandy was the purest brandy to be obtained. His process left it free from all deleterious drugs so common especially in the imported brandies three fourths of which are nothing but grain whisky transformed through their formula of doctoring flavors, oil of cognac, ether and other drugs equally poisonous. Most druggists as also the first class bars in California sell Scheffler's Sanitary Vacuum Distilled Brandy, as well as his Good Old Edge Hill Port, Sherry, Amber Hock, Riesling and Claret Wines. No wines in California equal those from the Old Edge Hill Vineyards of St Helena. GEO H BEACH Agent, now here on his fall trip.

OFFICE OF THE

PACIFIC MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, July 1st 1880

To all Desirous of Securing the Benefits of Life Insurance:

The first consideration with applicants for life insurance is, or at least should be, SAFETY. Will the Money Paid out for the Policy be Prudently Invested? Are the Affairs of the Company Honestly and Efficiently Administered? When the Policy Becomes a Claim, will it be Promptly Paid, and thus the object which induced the payment of the premiums be fully attained? These are queries naturally suggested and the character of the answers determines the course of the questioner and the selection of his Company.

In this connection the Managers of the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY respectfully beg leave to submit the following facts and statements concerning their Company.

1. Since its organization A D 1868 it has paid 323 death losses on policies amounting in the aggregate to $907 9 .

2. It has Paid to Policy Holders, for Matured Endowments, Dividends, and Surrender Values, in Round Numbers, $1 000,000.

3. Its losses have been paid Promptly and without Litigation. No judgment arising from a Policy claim has ever been rendered against it and it has no suits of this character pending.

4. It has repeatedly been examined by Sworn Experts, and most thorough and searching investigations made of its condition and business and IN EVERY CASE its Solvency and Trustworthiness have been Demonstrated.

5. Its Stockholders and Directors are widely known as among the most capable business men and ablest financiers of the state of California and the integrity of their management is unquestioned.

6. The laws of the state including the constitutional provisions affecting corporations are of the most rigid character such as to make the Company one of the safest institutions of its kind.

Section 3 of Article XII of the NEW CONSTITUTION of the State of California is as follows:

Sec 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee.

7. Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive. The New Rate Deposit Endowment and Mutual Investment Policies are peculiar to this Company and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed if equaled by those of any other Company.

8. When desired its policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioner of California on the payment of a fee and a policy so issued by the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of California has then the guarantee of the State of California that the money paid by this Company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds [illegible] With December 31st 1879 the Company closed its eleventh year and [illegible] the only instance on record in which a life insurance company in the eleventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts, not only was this done but in addition thereto a considerable surplus remained.

Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as propose effecting insurance upon their lives we solicit their patronage and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT 9 1880

A DEFENSE FROM YAZOO.

An Earthly Paradise where only Serene Peace, Sweet Reasonableness and Perfect Toleration Prevail

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

PORTLAND Sept 1880

I hand you herewith a letter from Gov Stone of Mississippi and one from Garrett Andrews, Esq of Yazoo city, enclosing an article published in your paper, from the Chicago Times, on the 15th of August last together with responsible certificates of its falsehood in every line and letter Acquainted as I am with the sentiments that animate southern people I knew the statements of F P Dixon to be utterly false though I was aware that thousands of well meaning people in the north believed every word and more These and like cruel and heartless slanders filled me with a sense of injury and resentful wrong, and I enclosed the article to Gov Stone asking that he favor me with a statement of the truth He has done so These relentless slanders are crimes against the national [illegible] and being exposed in all their glaring enormity, should stir the indignation of an honest and generous people. If such crimes are fostered we shall become a nation of liars. SIDNEY DELL

JACKSON Aug 24 1880

SIDNEY DELL Esq Portland Oregon Your letter of the 16th inst, enclosing a communication from Washington to the Chicago Times clipped from the DAILY OREGONIAN of the 10th inst in relation to F P Dixon and his visit to Yazoo county in this state has been received I regret that I am not sufficiently acquainted with the circumstances to which the correspondent refers to enable me to furnish such statement of fact as the courtesy of your inquiry demands, but I have referred the matter to Col Garrett Andrews a prominent citizen of Yazoo City, a gentleman who is conservative in all things, enjoys the confidence of all parties and whose statements are entitled to the fullest credit If Col Andrews shall think proper to write you on the subject, I assure you that you may rely upon what he says with perfect confidence in its truth

I know that Henry M Dixon was killed by James A Barksdale on account of a gross personal affront, and not by 'the democrats of Yazoo county,' as stated I do know that Mrs Dixon died some time since, and I learned that she received the kindest attention and treatment from the people of Yazoo City during her illness and her funeral was attended by a very large concourse of the best people of the town Of course I cannot say what Mrs Dixon's apprehensions were after the death of her husband, but I do say that if she had any fears that she and her children were in the least danger of being molested, they were utterly groundless.

I do not know what Mr Ingraham or any one else said to Mr F P Dixon, but the whole statement is so utterly at variance with the character and conduct of the people of Yazoo county, and so absurd in its details, that I do not hesitate to express the belief that it is a fabrication from beginning to end Respectfully,

J M STONE

YAZOO, Aug 25, 1880.

MR. SIDNEY DELL, Portland, Oregon I have just received a letter from Governor J. M Stone, of this state, enclosing your letter to him of the 15th inst, with the accompanying article from the DAILY OREGONIAN, containing an interview of with Frank P. Dixon, published in the Chicago Times The governor informs me that he has written to you of the disposition of your letter, and of his request to me to give you the facts of the matter It gives me pleasure to serve both you and him

There is no truth in the article, or in the alleged statements made by Frank Dixon. He was never driven away from here Up to the time of Henry Dixon's death, he lived upon his brother's bounty, having no means of support of his own, having always lived the life of an idler He came from near Washington City originally, and I presume his pecuniary necessities drove him back there He was an utterly insignificant timid and obscure young man, whom no one thought of harming, and was as safe as I am. He cut no figure whatever in politics.

Mrs. H. M Dixon was greatly respected here, and always received the sympathy of the whole community in her distress. She was a native of the place, and had many very sincere friends here The statement that she either feared molestation, or was in danger of it, is absurd.

There were no threats whatever made against Frank Dixon on his recent visit to the place He was daily on the streets, and visited about the county at his pleasure Mr Nat Ingram, whose name is mentioned in the interview, lives some distance up the river, on the opposite bank, and it would cause me some delay and trouble to communicate with him but I assure you that he has publicly refuted so much of the statements as refers to him

What is said about the action of the Yazoo Herald is as false as all the rest. I send you by same post with this, a copy of that paper marked, from which you will see exactly what it did say about Mr Dixon For fear it should not reach you, I copy the notice referred to in full Here it is

"Frank Dixon, now a resident of Washington City, has been on a visit to Yazoo for a few days.

That was everything—absolutely everything—it said about him As you will see, it afterwards answered his slanders.

The greatest falsehood of all, is the statement in the last paragraph, that a half dozen colored men cannot get together on the streets of Yazoo City without interruption from white democrats. Our streets are crowded with hundreds of them daily They compose part of our fire department, have a fine hall, four large churches, some of them very handsome, where they congregate nightly and on every Sabbath. They are constantly seen in large processions, and in excursions in great multitudes. Yazoo county supports over one hundred public schools, more than two-thirds of which are for colored children Her treasury is full of money, and her teachers are paid promptly in cash The colored people have a fine state normal school, and a college of their own, supported by the public The census of 1870 gave Yazoo county 17,000 inhabitants, and now in 1880, it gives her 35,000, and her people are rich, prosperous and happy. Many of the wealthy men here are colored, and they own some of the finest and most valuable plantations in the county as well as valuable real estate in this city. Immigrants, white and colored, are constantly coming in, and all who are industrious prosper

These, I think, are the most effectual answers that can be given to the cruel falsehoods told about us No such prosperity could exist in the hell which the republican papers paint

There is a full republican electoral ticket in the field, and any white man or darkey who desires to do so, may vote for Garfield as freely as you may in Oregon

Pardon the length of my letter I could hardly answer in fewer words. Yours truly,

GARRETT ANDREWS

YAZOO CITY, Aug 25, 1880

The undersigned citizens of Yazoo City, Mississippi, have read the annexed "Washington Special to the Chicago Times," containing an interview with F P Dixon copied into the DAILY OREGONIAN, and we certify that it is false, and wholly without foundation or pretext.

THE TIDY HOUSEWIFE.

The careful tidy housewife when she is giving her house its spring cleaning should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than houses and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma and she should know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters the purest and best of all medicines See other column

SOUTHERN OPINION.

Hampton Openly Defended.

[From the Mobile Register]

Wade Hampton uttered nothing that should alarm the most supersensitive loyalist, when he made the remarks attributed to him

More to the Same Effect

[From the Richmond Dispatch]

Lee and Stonewall Jackson represented in the late war in this country the cause which was upheld in the war of the revolution by Washington and Hamilton

Southern Toleration

From Senator M C Butler's speech in South Carolina]

Look at Longstreet! He was begged and implored not to persevere in his course but he drifted on and floundered deeper and deeper in the mire until he landed hard and fast in the republican slough And what has he gained? Scorn ostracism odium. It will—worse than all the contempt of the men who stood by him under the shower of death and destruction He forfeited the opinion of all honest men for the sake of an office and he began by being an independent

What Southern Supremacy Means

[Congressman Blackburn, of Kentucky in house of representatives April 5 1879]

For the first time in eighteen years the democracy is back in power in both branches of congress We propose to celebrate their return to power by wiping from the statute book the so degrading restrictions on freedom of the election laws, and by striking away the shackles which partisan legislation has imposed. We do not intend to stop until we have stricken the last vestige of your war measures from the statute book —until we have an untrammeled election and an unsupervised ballot

A Further Specimen of 'Conciliation '

[From the Helena (Ark) Yeoman]

The man who thinks he can lead an opposition against the organized democracy of Phillips county is not only extremely presumptuous but extremely bold He will require a body guard equal to the whole number of voters in the democratic ranks, and a Gibraltar in his rear on the day of election

A Terrible Threat '

[From the Advance (Lynchburg Va) Dem]

If the people of the north persist in the support of radicalism and elect Garfield there is but one remedy and the south and west must enforce it—non intercourse in trade and the establishment of all kinds of manufactures, direct trade with foreign nations from every southern port, the building of southern ships and encouragement of southern manufacturing and mining

Not Settled by the War

[Col R G Ingersoll]

After four years of war in the United States the questions that we endeavored to settle by the sword are as unsettled as they were in 1859 These questions must be settled not only by the bayonet but by argument All that the war settled is who were the strongest. War only makes the contestants stop and listen and the result has now to be argued out, not fought out And so to day we are arguing the question in defense of which millions of men risked their lives, and that question is just as unsettled to-night as it was then

No Freedom of Opinion in the South

The Nation makes the following quotation from a letter received from an "intelligent observer in Texas

My conviction is that if the few southern born union men, such as ex governor E J Davis, were sent to canvass at the north, they would effect more good than any number of northern politicians that might be sent to canvass the south The good people of the original free states do not understand the condition of things in the south, where the white men never were and are not yet free, but are ridden by the same old set of democratic politicians who held office before, during and since the war, and intend to continue to hold office, without scruple as to how they get it, while life endures.

Though there are complaints in some quarters of dullness in business, there is still quite as little cause for such complaints in Portland as in other cities. San Francisco for instance, has for years been regarded as undergoing a severe experience in business matters, and though during the past few months there have been some signs of a revival there still is a lack of that life and activity which is noticed even in our own city The new constitution of California, says an exchange from that state, has been a detriment in the loss of millions of dollars in every field of operation and while every effort is being made by those who have all their interests at stake to enforce its provisions in an equitable and just way unscrupulous and propertyless citizens are making strong efforts to increase the burdens under which the state is now struggling

In our local wheat market there is an increased movement, the receipts to day reaching a higher figure than on any previous day this season Prices have shown no improvement and holders are not pressing sales. Quotations range from $1 27½ to $1 32. A slight encouragement is presented in a charter at 17s 6d to Cork for orders, from San Francisco The rate a week ago was 2s 1d higher By so much as freights recede prices for grain will or ought to advance

Flour is in fair supply at the last quotations with a tolerably fair local trade,

A San Francisco exchange remarks that it is becoming a very serious question with large wheat holders to know what to do with their large surplus crops. Warehouses are being filled up rapidly and some are beginning to build greater, while others are sure to get caught napping when the rainy season overtakes them We want ships and plenty of them, and ship owners may be quite sure of securing good rates therefor

There are now in this port or in the river the Chandos, Cultivator, H. G. Johnson Mary S Ames Oasis Francis Thorpe Josefa Vallen and Strathearn of the grain fleet and in a few days more there will be if receipts continue as now enough wheat at this point to load them all with no apparent effort being made to secure more tonnage With the scarcity of ships which it seems there is to be on this coast the foreign wheat markets must show a marked improvement before we can look for much better prices at home

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK Sept. 8 —There is no material change to note in the freight market which yet remains quiet and ships load slowly The St. Mark will probably finish on the 18th, and the Vigilant by the 20th Rates remain firm, with an upward tendency as agents must get better prices in order to induce ship owners to put their vessels on berth Tonnage is still scarce and available vessels are held at $9 per ton which is more than present market rates will average Isthmus freights are dull except for China freight. There is considerable going forward notably domestics for which the company give through bills of lading at $15 per ton

FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs increases on pressure, sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility, he is easily startled his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low, and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it In fact, he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

The genuine are never sugar coated

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression DR McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C McLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh Pa the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation
